THEATRICAL.

The Paris Grand.
"The Final Settlement" presents a picture of social and business life. Each character acts as though transplanted from life to the boards of the stage. The rise of a brilliant young foreman from a position of obscurity to the presidency of a great steel trust is shown. His suddenly acquired power to the allurements of life in the social set to which he is placed turn his head and cause him to renounce his wife.

Through the wiles of business associates he is persuaded to get a di-and ruined. He is arrested for violating the anti-trust law. The play is powerful in its working out, and is strictly a modern story.

This play will be presented by the Shannon Stock Company during their engagement at the Paris Grand, which commences Monday, Dec. 8.

The Alamo Theatre

Friday—The Lubin Company presents "The Clod" in two reels, a fearful and most dramatic episode of the Mexican Revolution. A story that shows a new angle on the horror of war. "Wanted—A Plumber" and "Too Many Cops," two Kalem comedies, featuring Mr. John E. Brennan. Miss Buena Atkinson is singing.

Saturday—"Ann of the Trails," a Vitagraph Western drama, featuring Anne Shaefer and George Stanley. "The Medal of Honor" a melodramatic fireman story, with a punch. "The Captivating Widow" and "Mike, the Timid Cop," two Kalem comedies, with John E. Brennan, Ruth Roland and Dick Coburn.

Miss Buena Atkinson is singing.

Tuesday, Dec. 9—Daniel Frohman presents Mrs. Fiske, in "Tess of the D'Urbervilles," a tender portrayal of a woman's sorrows. On account of this being a very long subject the first show will start promptly at one o'clock p. m., and we will run continuously until 10:30 p. m. To avoid the big rush at night we advise all who can to come in the afternoon. There will be no raise in price.

NORTH CAROLINA CONVICT
HELD IN THE PARIS JAIL

Will Lee, alias Will Garland, a negro, alleged murderer and highwayman, was arrested yesterday by Chief of Police McCord, in Winchester on advice received from the Paris police and Patrolman Fred Link of his local department, went to that city yesterday returned with him yesterday afternoon and lodged him in the Paris jail.

Lee, who is wanted by the authorities of Marion, North Carolina, has been in this section for several months, and Patrolman Link Tuesday received a telegram from Deputy Sheriff J. Ray, of that city, to that effect. Learning of the negro's whereabouts the officer went in search of him but found he had gone to Winchester. He telephoned the authorities in that city to be on the lookout for him and left for Winchester yesterday morning.

Lee was serving a sentence in a North Carolina prison when he attempted to escape and was shot in the back. Later he eluded the officers and has since been at large. The scar caused by the bullet wound in the back was one of the marks by which he was identified.

The North Carolina authorities have been notified that the negro is being held in custody here and are expected to arrive in a few days to return him to that State.

STOCK AND FARM NOTES

—Harris & Speakes, real estate agents, of this city, sold Tuesday, for John Cannaday, to N. H. Rankin, of Carlisle his farm located on the Paris & Maysville pike, in the edge of Millersburg, for about $4,000. The place contains thirteen acres. Mr. Rankin bought the farm as an investment.

—Madison County Court—The Richmond Climax reports the Madison county court as follows: "Notwithstanding the inclement weather of Monday morning and the activity of many farmers who are busily engaged in stripping tobacco, a fairly large crowd came to town to attend county court. An unusually large supply of stock of all kinds was on the market and prices in most cases were satisfactory. About 1,200 cattle were reported at the Madison Stock Yards, with prices ranging from $3.50 to $7 per cwt. Everything was fairly well sold by Tuesday morning. The horse market was quite active and quite a number changed hands at good prices. Ten good horses were sold to shippers at $150 to $200. Few mules on the market, with ready sale for good stock at $175 to $225. Very little demand for suckling mules and they brought good prices."
